Photo: Martha M. Brye in Hallingdal costume, 1930 (aunt to Laura Brye Aune).

Photo: Martha M. Brye, Nurse's Graduation class, 1900. Photo: Lars Knutson Brye, 1890 or 1898, in log room of Farm Home built in 1853.

Lars K. Brye, Family history for Vernon County Historical Society Centennial Book to be published in 1994.

Article from "Hallingen", Spring 1994, written about conditions in Norway before L.K. Brye left in 1849.

Sample of Sprang, hand made needle work, along with hand made wooden needles for knitting or Sprang.

Cloth samples, patterns, stitching tools, for hand crafts.

metal crochet hook tea strainer metal thimbles, 3 egg cup salt server and spoon old scale pincusion for hemming wooden clamp small salt server or toothpick carved Brye family butter mold small black wooden box with sliding door handmade oval bentwood birch box

Collection of fabric samples, hand woven pieces from Norway, woven on large upright frame (Upsta vav), made by Kari Felde; weaving patterns from Martha Brye. Also American fabric samples (belonged to Martha Brye) (identity of Kari Felde not known).

Martha Brye's list and notes regarding antiques she acquired during her lifetime, exhibiting them at LaCrosse Teacher's College, churches, etc.

Wool yardage, carded, dyed, woven, from wool raised on the farm before 1890, as Mrs. Lars K. Brye died in 1890 of pneumonia.

Martha Brye's notes and memorabilia from her 1921 trip to Norway.